Doctoral Candidate Day

Open Day of Poznań Doctoral Schools

Tuesday, 30 June 2026 | White Hall, Poznań City Hall

17 Plac Kolegiacki, 61-841 Poznań, Poland

Welcome!

We are delighted to welcome you to Poznań Doctoral Candidate Day, held in conjunction with the Open Day of Poznań Doctoral Schools, taking place on Tuesday, 30 June 2026, in the White Hall of Poznań City Hall.

Poznań Doctoral Candidate Day is an initiative of the Poznań Doctoral Association, aimed at promoting doctoral education, showcasing the educational offer of Poznań doctoral schools, and creating a space for exchanging experiences and discussing the future of science in Poznań and the Greater Poland region.

As part of the event, we have prepared presentations of Poznań doctoral schools and research institutes, a presentation of the PoDEST project, and a panel discussion entitled "PhD in Poznań – Science, Development, Future", dedicated to the challenges and future perspectives of doctoral education.

See you soon at Poznań City Hall!

Doctoral Association*

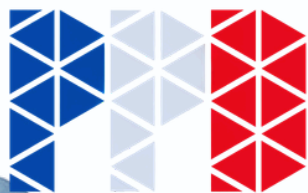

What is the Poznań Doctoral Association?

Poznań Doctoral Association (PPD) brings together doctoral candidate councils from all public higher education institutions in Poznań, representing doctoral candidates at both the local and national levels while working collectively to support and strengthen the doctoral community. PPD serves as a platform for cooperation among doctoral candidate councils across the entire academic community of Poznań.

PPD unites the doctoral candidate councils of eight institutions offering doctoral education in Poznań:

- Adam Mickiewicz University, Poznań (AMU)
- Poznań University of Technology (PUT)
- Poznań University of Life Sciences (PULS)
- Poznań University of Medical Sciences (PUMS)
- Poznań University of Economics and Business (PUEB)
- Poznań University of Physical Education (PUPE)
- Academy of Music in Poznań (AMP)
- Polish Academy of Sciences Institutes in Poznań (PAS Institutes in Poznań)
